

Financial wellbeing calendar

MONEY
FIRST
AID

A calendar for Money First Aiders looking to raise awareness of their role and offer support to their colleagues, and for employers looking to promote good financial health and financial inclusion in their organisations.

Date	Event	What's happening?
2nd Jan	First working day of the year	Colleagues may be feeling financial stress after Christmas. It's a good time to offer MONEY FIRST AID conversations and promote workplace benefits.
20th Jan	Brew Monday	A day when Samaritans encourage everyone to reach out for a cuppa and a catch-up. A great day to offer some MONEY FIRST AID conversations.
20th-26th Jan	Energy Savers Week	Citizens Advice and Energy Saving Trust share a winter heating checklist and a resource pack to keep warm and spend less this winter.
6th Feb	Time to Talk	A day to have conversations with family, friends, or colleagues
23rd Feb	Helplines Awareness Day	A great opportunity to share the helplines included in the MONEY FIRST AID course and signpost to the helpline directory on this site.
From 3rd March	Free Wills Month	A campaign that allows people to write or update a simple will for free. An opportunity to share the financial implications of bereavement and the benefits of having a will.
24th - 30th March	Debt Awareness Week	Break the stigma surrounding debt and promote the practical advice and solutions available from resources shared in the MONEY FIRST AID course.
April	Stress Awareness Month	Increase awareness about both the causes and support available for stress. It is a good time to offer MONEY FIRST AID conversations to those struggling with financial stress.
1st April	Minimum wage increases	For workers aged 21 and over, the National Living Wage will rise from £11.44 to £12.21 per hour. The National Minimum Wage for younger workers will increase from £8.60 to £10.00 per hour (18-21 year olds) and from £6.40 to £7.55 per hour (16-17 year olds).

Financial wellbeing calendar

MONEY
FIRST
AID

A calendar for Money First Aiders looking to raise awareness of their role and offer support to their colleagues, and for employers looking to promote good financial health and financial inclusion in their organisations.

Date	Event	What's happening?
6th April	New tax year	Budget changes come into effect: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Increases to the UK State Pension• The reduction in the Universal Credit debt repayment cap from 25% to 15%• Help to Save scheme for lower earners extended to 2027
12th-15th May	Mental Health Awareness Week	A good week to offer MONEY FIRST AID conversations for anyone whose money is impacting their mental health.
9th-15th June	Carers Week	Highlight the challenges unpaid carers face and recognise the contribution they make to families and communities throughout the UK.
July	School summer holidays begin	Parents and guardians may be facing higher costs for entertaining their children or paying for extra childcare. Promote workplace benefits like flexible working, childcare support or discounts and rewards.
24th July	Samaritans awareness day	Share their confidential hotline.
14th August	Financial Awareness Day	A day to promote financial literacy and the benefits of good financial health.
9th-15th September	Pension Awareness week	Pension-related webinars by independent experts to share information on your workplace pension
15th-21st September	UK National Inclusion Week	Celebrate inclusion and taking action to build inclusive workplaces.
22nd - 28th September	UK savings week	A week to raise awareness of the benefits of saving and help everyone save where they can.

Financial wellbeing calendar

MONEY
FIRST AID

A calendar for Money First Aiders looking to raise awareness of their role and offer support to their colleagues, and for employers looking to promote good financial health and financial inclusion in their organisations.

Date	Event	What's happening?
10th October	World Mental Health Day	A day for mental health education, awareness and advocacy against social stigma.
October	Scams Awareness Campaign	A week to educate everyone on what to do when they spot a scam. A great week to share the financial scam resources in the MONEY FIRST AID course.
October	Renters rights awareness week	A week to educate and empower renters with the knowledge they need to advocate for themselves and their communities.
3rd-7th November	Talk Money Week	A week to encourage open conversations about money and seek advice from experts if needed. A great week to offer MONEY FIRST AID conversations.
3rd-7th November	Stress awareness week	A week for individuals and organizations to engage in stress-awareness activities. A good week to share information on the causes, signs and impacts of financial stress.
17th-21st November	Safer gambling week	A week to promote safer gambling and share the gambling resources included in the MONEY FIRST AID course.
21st November	Carers Rights Day	A day to raise awareness of the rights the UK's 5.7 million unpaid carers are entitled to, and to help them get the support they need and the recognition they deserve.
26th November	Economic Abuse Awareness Day	A day to raise awareness about economic abuse and share resources to support those impacted.
November	Addiction Awareness Week	A week to shine a light on the complex causes of addiction and challenge the stigma surrounding it. Share the resources included in the MONEY FIRST AID course.
December	Seasonal early pay day	Colleagues may be paid earlier than usual this month, ahead of the festive period and New Year. This may lead to financial stress so it's a good time to offer MONEY FIRST AID conversations to support them through to the next paycheck.